KAY'S — Practical Embroiderer, SECOND SET.

Registered Designs Nos. 852925 to 852931.

I am pleased to be able to offer you, as continuation of Kay's Practical Embroiderer these additional floral designs. This Second Set can be used with wool, stranded cotton or silk with great ease and success. If used in conjunction with the First Set or as a separate unit, will make an amazing selection of beautiful designs.

The method of working is exactly as in No. 1, i.e. always have double wool silk or cotton in an ordinary darning or sewing needle, cover the templets with strands on the right side of the work only, taking care to always return the needle on the same side, in order to make a small stitch on the back of the work, and only have the strands on the right side. When the necessary layers are in position, cut, with an ordinary pair of scissors, right through the centre of each stitch, and then lift the templet clear.

KAY'S — Practical Embroiderer, SECOND SET.

Registered Designs Nos. 852925 to 852931.

The principal of this work is identical with the method used in a No. 1 Set.

DIAGRAM ONE.

I have had so many requests for a templet that would make raised roses. This three leaf disc if worked as directed will make a perfect rose.

DIAGRAM TWO.

This small templet is ideal for trimming dresses, coats, etc. Two layers of silk, cotton or wool make very successful designs.

Registered Designs Nos. 852925 to 852981.

Registered No. 852931

DIAGRAM THREE.

Embroider the Bell in a horizontal position cut, and lift out the templet. By using the leaf for the outer petals, you get a charming daffodil design.

When ordering please mention SECOND SET, otherwise the original will be sent.
